

U.S. MISSIONS in TURKEY
SOLICITATION for TSIO SERVICE
ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS NO. 1

STU150-14-Q-3015

Prior to the Pre-Proposal Conference, we have received the questions from a few potential offerors and their replies are as follows:

1. Our English level is not adequate for the pre-proposal conference; can we bring a translator or will the Embassy provide translation?
Each company is responsible for comprehending the provided documents and preparing the documents in English. This is the same for the pre-proposal conference. The potential offerors are free to bring their translators, if they deem that it will aid their comprehension.
2. Is there any limit on the number of individuals from the same company attending the pre-proposal meeting?
Yes, each company can bring a maximum of 3 individuals.
3. Is the U.S. Embassy currently working with another firm for this service or is this the first time U.S. Embassy soliciting out for this service?
Yes, it is the first time the U.S. Government is soliciting out for this service
